THE HALL SCHOOL PITTSFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

DEDICATION

It is hard to believe that four years have passed. Throughout these years, there has always been a very special person supporting and working hard for us.

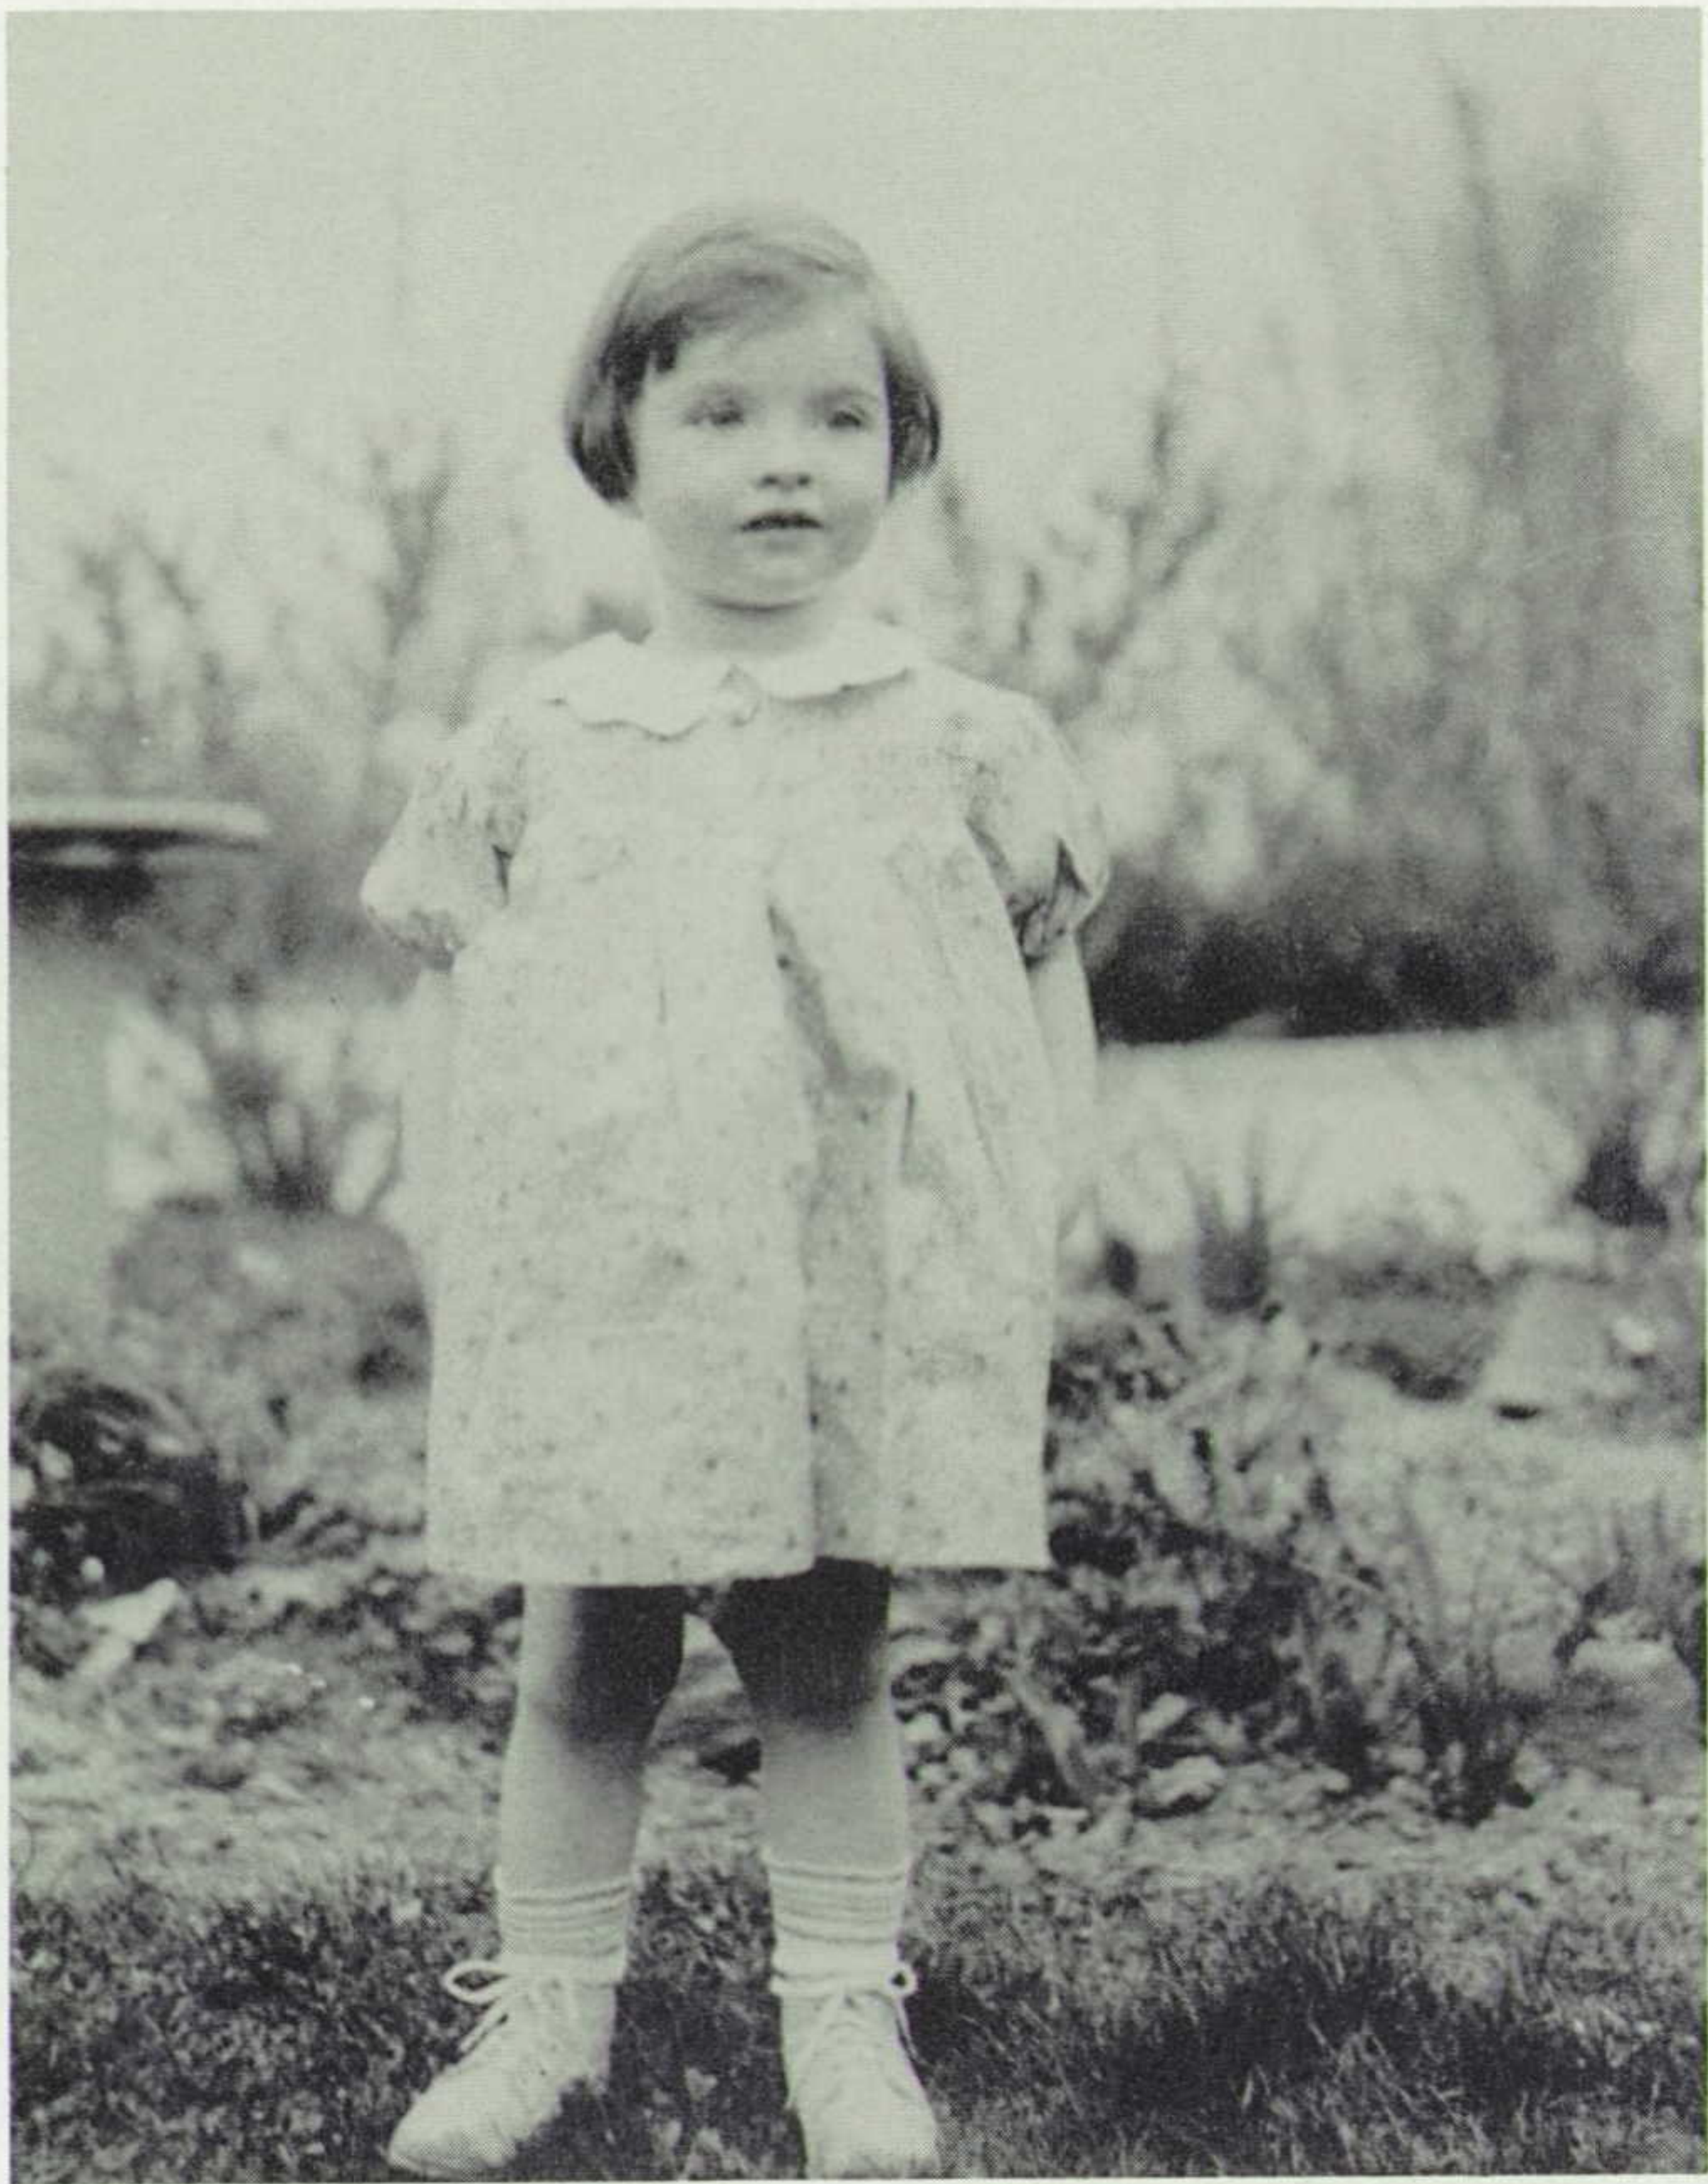

Mrs. Kurber,

The first day, when we entered as freshmen, your smiling face and pleasant disposition made the day so much easier to bear. You have continued to make our days nice for the past four years, so, with many thanks and love, we, the class of 1981, proudly dedicate our HALLMARK to you, Joan Kurber. We will never forget you.

HILARY WHITTAKER CURTIS

The Sun will come out tomorrow.
Annie

Sya-Nada Chicas, and remember, you're never fully dressed without a smile!

Alas, to The Hall School, Mr. Bussey, teachers, my buddies, and especially Miss Coleman, I say thank you all for the laughter, friendships, and all the memorable good times. To Charmichael, thanks for the woman guidance, I love ya lots, kid, you're the best. Paige, baby, thanks for good times. Hit away Brenda . . . Motor Ledge Curtis . . . Who? Who? Mike's fat wife!

LISARENEE CARMICHAEL

"May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
And the rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand."

"When I'm down, you're always there just to see me through. You understand everything that I do. It's not a wonder that I care for you, and so babe, it's only fair we should hold on tight. Please be careful just to follow the light. I promise everything will be alright. Oh, there ain't nothing sadder than missing so the one you love . . ."

Just walk away
I'm going back inside and turning out the light.
And I'll be in the dark but you'll be out of sight.

Let the disappointments pass
Let the laughter fill your glass
Let your illusions last until they shatter
Whatever you might hope to find
Among the thoughts that crowd your mind
There won't be many that ever really matter.

Of course you'll get back to narnia, some day.
But don't go trying to use the same route twice.
Indeed, don't try to get there at all.
It will happen when you're not looking for it.

Yes, Elena, it's another intellectual statement.

SUZANNE MARIE WILSON

My eyes have just been opened,
And they're open very wide
Images around me
Don't identify inside
Just one blur I recognize
The one that soothes and feeds
My way of life is easy
And as simple are my needs.

STEPHANIE DIANE EVANS

It all seems so long ago when we ate Hersheyettes, not M & M's, we sang "Tin Funnel" and jumped in leaves, screamed "alrighta" and B.M.T. down the corridors to each other . . . Remember, "Decorum," girls and the likes . . . a Rufus concert, and Bosquet's on fire . . . A year passed, and we were doing other things, herkin' and jerkin', ya-hoo!! . . . I.Y.Q. and I do became parts of my vocabulary, Where is she? a favorite question, and "You Love the Thunder" a favorite song. Who can forget D.D.M. and the "Sophomore Fun Group?" Um-fum-fum and me, too! added more to that memorable year. Then I began to watch out for big trees and I found out that Bing wasn't his name . . . Miss Piggy was after Kermit, and my brother was backstrokin' . . . "No touch" and pulse rates became daily routines . . . I answered my door for a candygram, but it was a landshark . . . Wilson and I took a break, everything is fine, just fine notes, and the sheik's dad made a surprise visit . . . Yes, girls, it's a new sweater . . . Thanks, Mom and Dad, for memorable years . . . I'll miss you, M.H.S.

Later!

FELICIA ANN HABERBERG

They arrived at an inconvenient time
I was hiding in a room in my mind
They made me look at myself
I saw it well, I'd shut the people out of my life
So now I take the opportunities
Wonderful teachers ready to teach me
I must work on my mind.
For now I realize that everyone of us
Has a heaven inside.

Them heavy people hit me in a soft spot
Them heavy people help me
Them heavy people hit me in a soft spot
Rolling the ball to me.

Kate Bush

Though the years have passed and things have changed
And I move any way I wanna go
I'll never forget the feeling I got
When I heard that you'd got home
An' I'll never forget the smile on my face
'Cos I knew where you would be
And if you're in the Crown tonight
Have a drink on me
But go easy
Step lightly
Stay free.

There is a part of me that wants to write, a part that wants to learn, a part that wants to sculpt, a part that wants to teach . . . To force myself into a single role, to decide to be just one thing in life would kill off large parts of me. Rather, I recognize that I live now and only now, and I will do what I want to do this moment and not what I decided was best for me yesterday.

Thank you seems hardly enough to say,
But I do thank you both
With all my heart.

You both have granted me
With your wisdom and love
You both give of
Yourselves so generously

Now I am ready, I am determined.
I will conquer all that I choose.

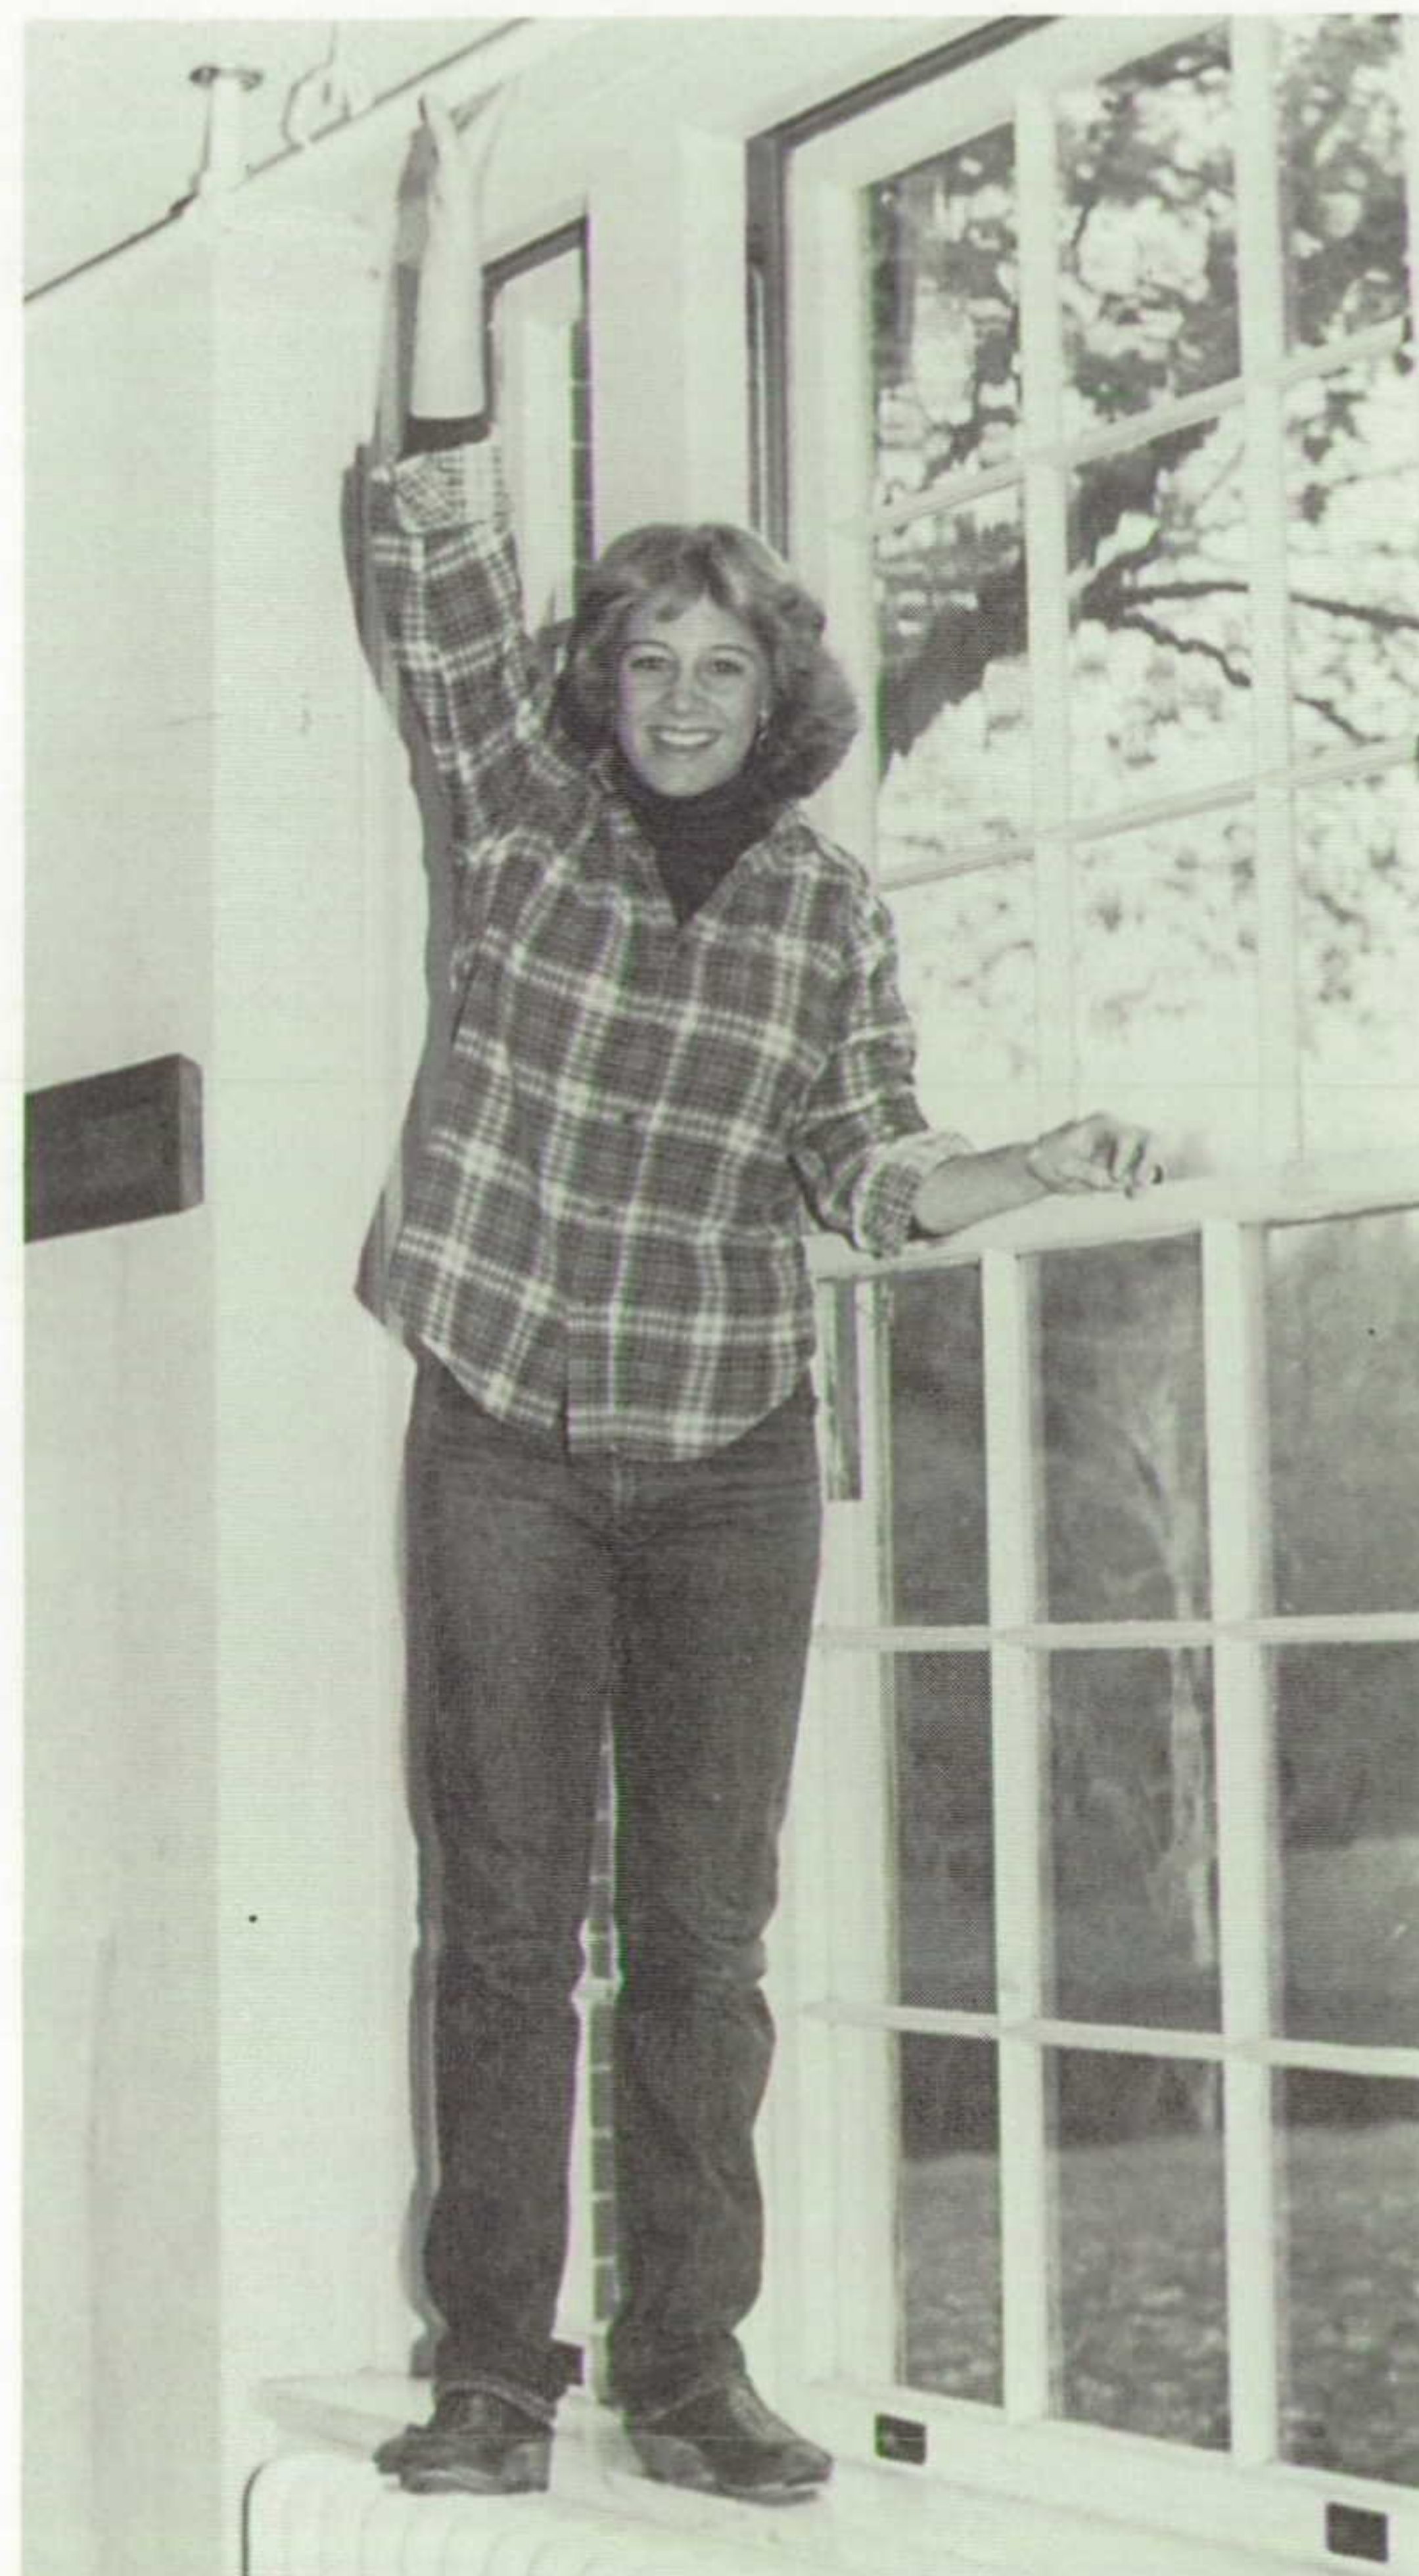

Those free luck artist
Days are gone forever!
Thank you, Mom and Dad
I love you both dearly.

Baby Child as a man
As a living grain of sand . . .
Sitting on the ever-changing shore,
Greeting the sunrise . . .
Picked up upon the Gypsy Woman,
Hair Flaming Night as ravens even sleep . . . rainbow cloth
Tambourine complimenting her chant and choice of graces,
And Love her God . . .

I actually looked upon her on my right . . . Coming forth
And Baby Child then secondly looked his left to eye and 11 or 12
women, men, and little ones approached:
They clad in their masters wish;
White robes swaying to be baptized.
These two worlds crossed each other in front of me, when
Afterwards, Baby Child sipped a heartful of ocean . . .
Spat out the waste and walked upon the New Day.

JOSEPH S. RUTKOWSKI

The Artist seeks and "I" to shout at the silly vendors in the street. Yet, he abandons the humming streetlights to pursue the dimmer corners.

Blinking Boxes with waste clad characters who crowd around and mumble. The artist enlarges upon his I. Expanding Iris open and unencumbered in the darkness.

Yet, the artist pauses to consider an itching scalp or whistling nostril exhaling. All these: forgotten epics.

Richard F. Rutkowski

WILLIAM JOHN ANTHONY KOWALCZYK

The future cannot alter the patterns we have made,
For ours is a memory that must not-will not fade.
Forever we shall go on to play our role in life,
Searching for victory through pain, toil, strife.

The years have been kind to us- companions in a way
God has sent us light- a heavenly, guiding ray
To instill within our hearts friendliness, and loyalty,
And understanding with others, embarking on life's rough sea.

Together we're reached this crossroad, a future looms in sight,
Assured of companions- Knowledge and Friendship- we chose the right,
For the right road impels us forward to happiness and success.
We have an eager spirit- God, knowing so, will expect our best.

To bear our tasks more earnestly, to grow within ourselves,
To give as we have never given- into these vows our ambition delves.
Perhaps we'll win, perhaps we'll fail, but our hearts will fill with delight.
And we'll remember, we'll remember such hopes that were born this night.

Emily Warren

Whose woods these are I think I know
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bitts a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep.
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

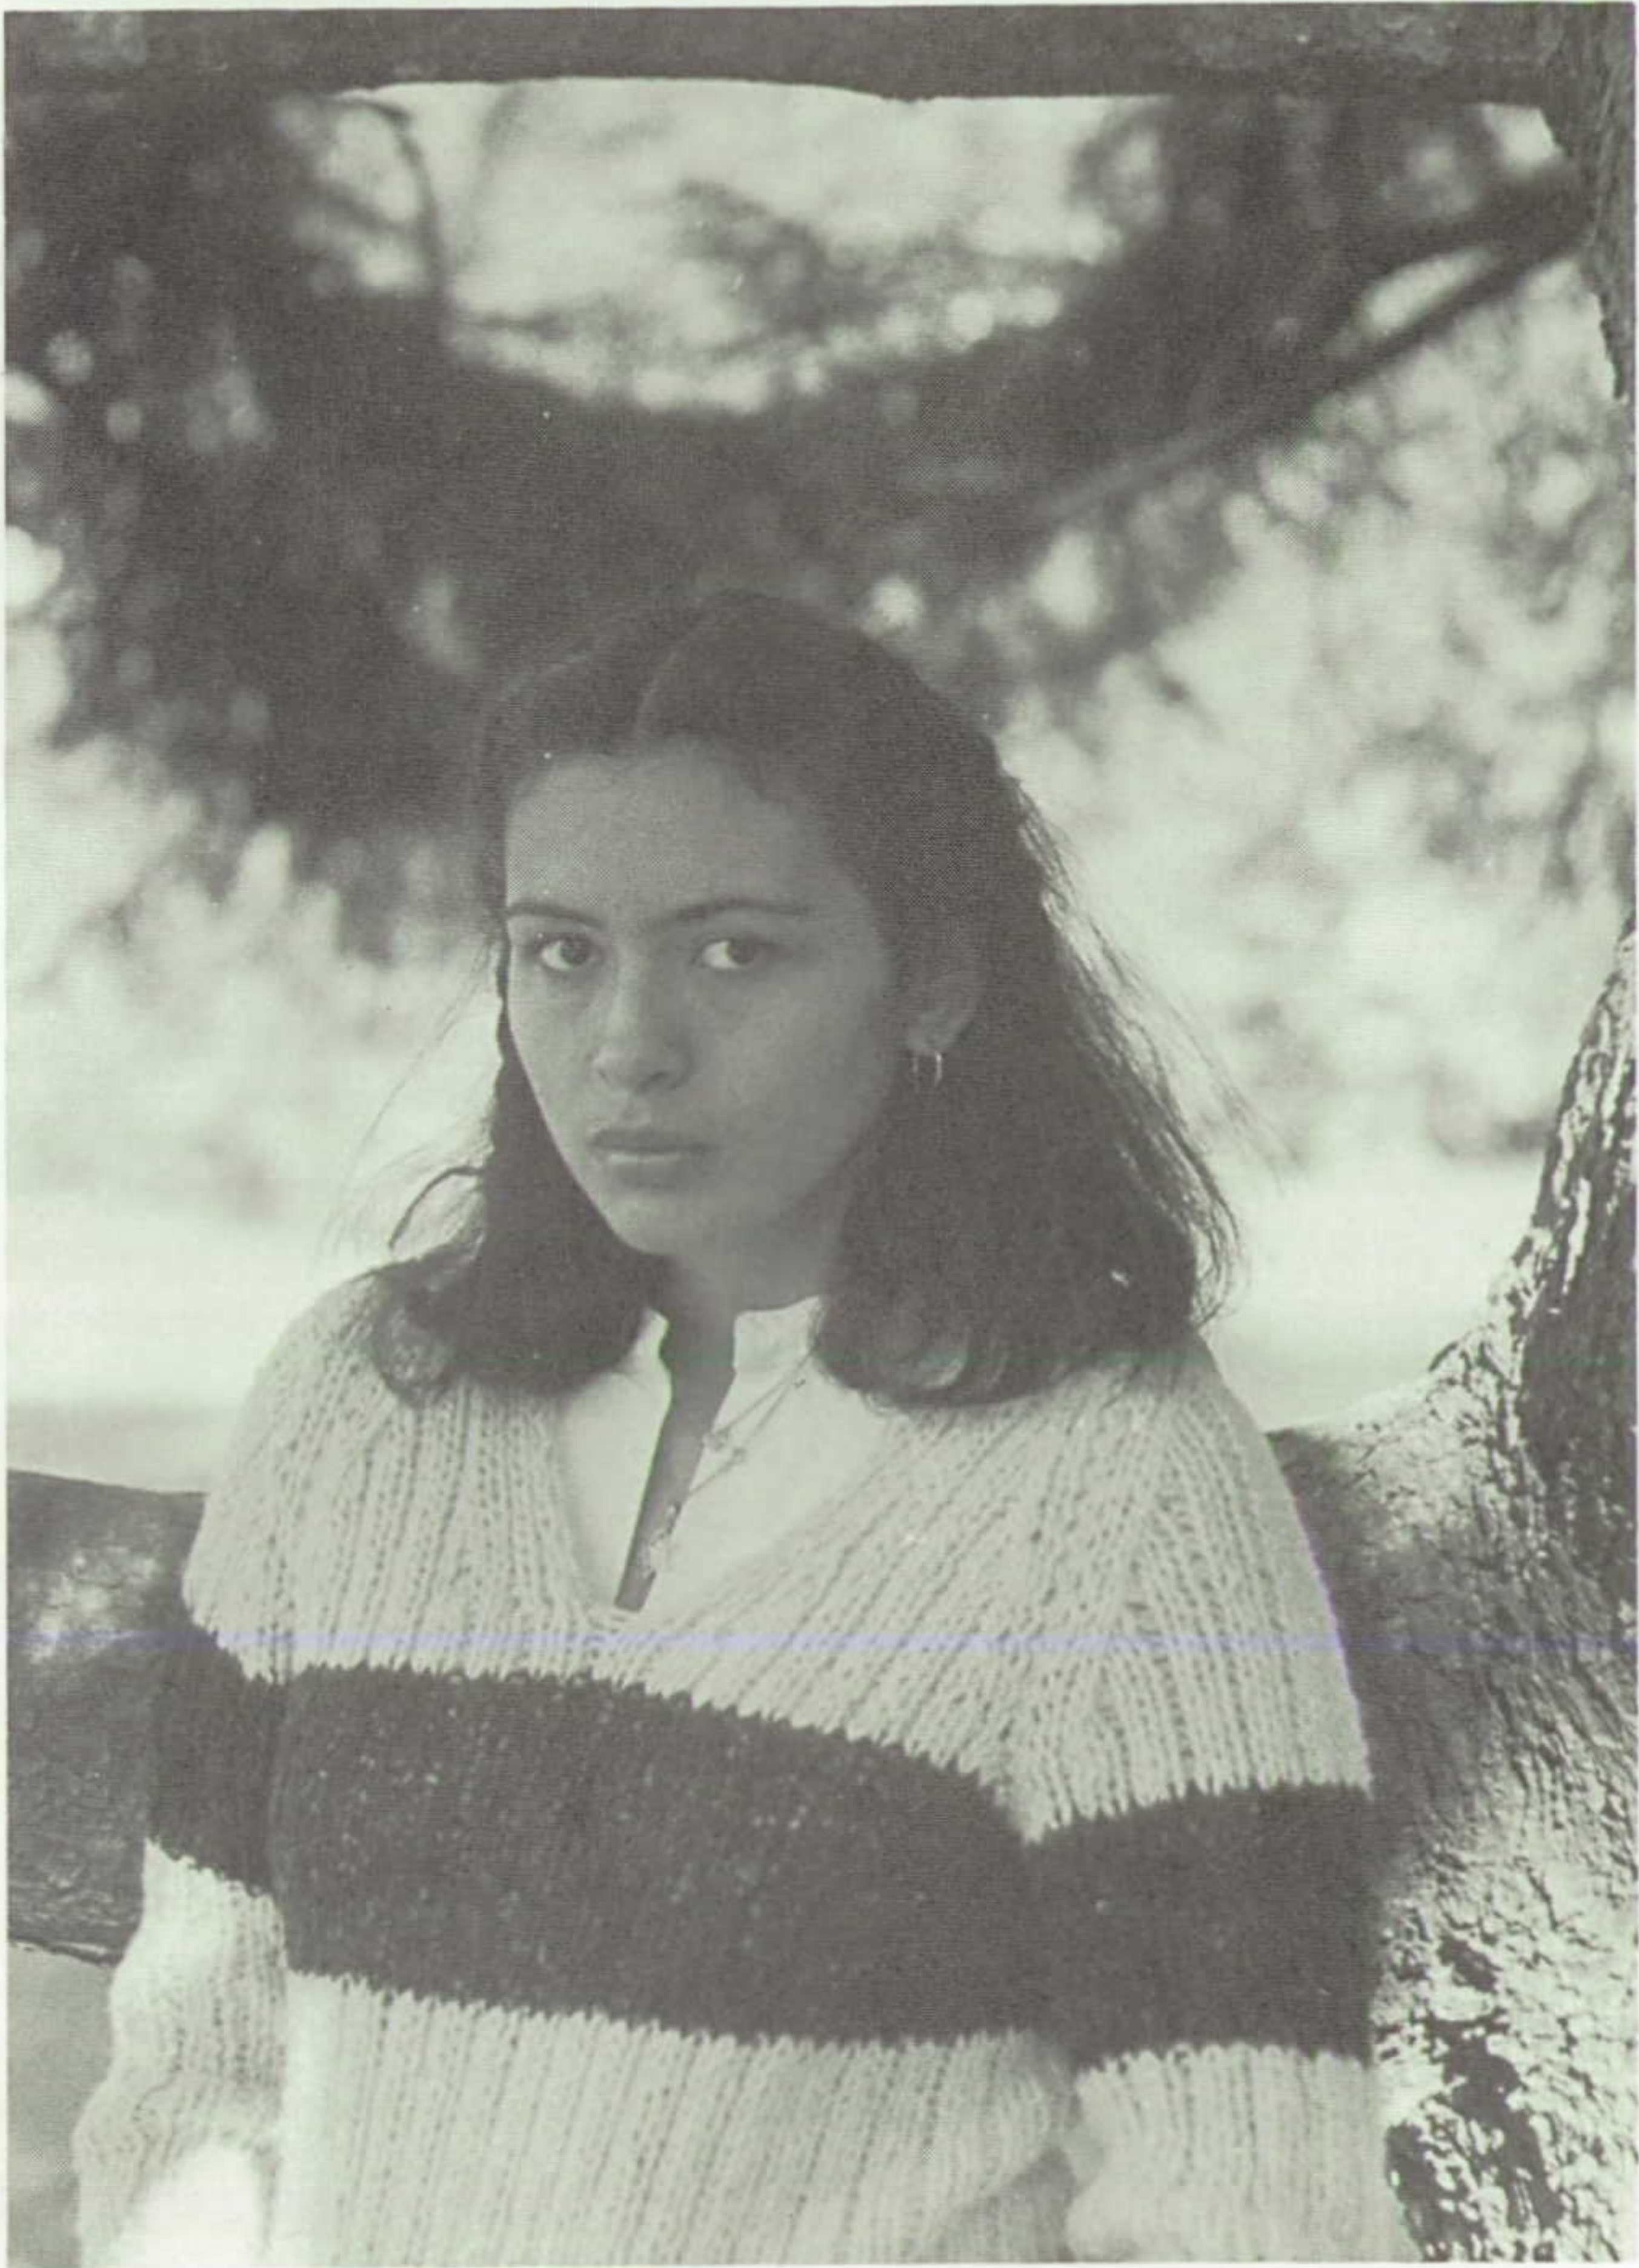

Robert Frost

Modified Baseball Cap (only monogrammed item on Hallus Individualis)

"Talbot's just burned to the ground" Smile

Jackson Browne, Neil Young, and/or Doors T-shirt

Handmade silver and turquoise bracelet (from "communing with nature" summer trip)

Abused Jeans (hand-me-down from brother who "did Frisco" in '64)

Jim Morrison Pin (optional)

Hockey stick (for fielding townies)

Two-tone flip-flops (loose to coincide with morals)

Hallus Prepus

"Daddy's on the Board of Trustees" smile-"So, Bob . . . ."

Turtleneck (a "must" after weekend with Chip)

Gold pearl necklace (inherited from alumna "Grandmummy")

Senior Blazer (to distinguish from low-life underclassmen)

Need you ask?!

Constant "fix" for the pseudo-dieter

Kilt-bought with Daddy's Brooks Brothers charge card

Lacrosse Stick-for netting wealthy men in BMW's (and an occasional game)

Cabled knee socks (from The Lemon Tree)

Monogrammed Canvas Bag (for college catalogues-pg. 41 in "the Catalogue")

Bluchers (pg. 36 in "the Catalogue")

A FRIEND

Seniors, as the seasons have changed in the year 1980-81, you have taken many steps to the final, last minutes of being at The Hall School. As the seasons keep changing, new paths will open for you to wander through and find yourselves. Then, we, the Juniors, will follow the seasons to graduation. You'll be missed, tears will be shed, hugs and kisses, along with laughs will be exchanged, and the last sight of you will be seen. No matter what, our memories of you will always exist. Good luck to all of you (the shy ones, the wild and crazy ones, the preppies, the mean ones, the sweet ones, the wimps), without all of you there wouldn't be a Senior Class, and you will be missed.

Good luck in the years ahead.
